The Minneapolis and Salina Military companies were drilling on Tuesday afternoon, Tuesday morning. Their drill was very perfect and soldierly and pleased the spectators very much. The Minneapolis company arrived Tuesday night.

The dinner table at Hagben's restaurant was a beautiful affair. A colossal cake stood at the head of the table, upon which the confectioner had engraved a welcome to the first fair. Flowers and fruit stands appeared at stated distances and everything was arranged in the best of taste.

Mr. Frank Shaw had pretty good luck in exhibiting his horses at the various fairs. At Blaines, his horses received three first premiums and five second. At the State Fair, they received two first premiums and two second. In addition to all this, and the growing glory in fact of the whole thing is that Frank has a jolly ten-pound boy.

Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Wellsinger and daughter, Des Moines, Iowa, and Mrs. A. C. Moore of Hopkins, Mo., are visiting the families of H. Bookman and M. J. Wellsinger. Mr. W. has for years been one of the leading business men of the capital city of Iowa, and with his family designs spending the coming winter in Southern California.

In another place will be found the announcement of W. A. Murphy, of Cambridge, who gives notice that he will be a candidate for county clerk, subject to the decision of the Republican county convention. Mr. Murphy is a well-known farmer who has always been regarded one of the leading Republicans of Salina county. He is perfectly competent for the position he seeks and would make a strong run.

Miss Lulu Hine, a teacher in the Adams school, has been called home to Salina, to the death bed of her brother, Taylor, Captain, Sunday.

Anderson R. Hine, aged 18 years, 2 months and 20 days, died of typhoid pneumonia at the home of his father, Mr. A. D. Hine, last Saturday morning.

The funeral occurred at the Christian church at 2 o'clock P. M., Sunday. There was a large attendance and the procession to the cemetery numbered 17 carriages. The casket, of which young Hine was a member, acted as pallbearers. Anderson was young man of many good qualities, and highly respected in our community.

Among the visitors to Salina last Tuesday were Wm. C. Dryer, Esq., of Victor, New York—father of Mr. W. B. Dryer of Adeline; G. W. Martin, of the Junction City Union; Geo. Huyck, of the Ellsworth Register.

The following members of the City Council of Junction City were here: Geo. W. Martin, Mayor; J. B. Cullum, City Clerk; Councilmen, P. V. Trivinger, Wm. Lawrence, J. C. Smith, C. P. Fogleson, C. B. Stebbins, Fred Mann. The following citizens of Junction City were also here: W. S. Blakely, Fred Barnes, Register of Deeds; R. M. Gage, John Bath, Wm. Ziegler.

The following persons from Abilene were present: Fire Department—G. W. Roher, Chief; etc. Hose Co., No. 1—W. S. Allerton, Foreman; W. H. Carpenter, Assistant; Richard Waring, Henry Gitta, David Allison, Fred Pierce, John Pierce, M. H. Bert, Wm. Appleman, Harry Updegraff, G. W. Shook, Hose Co., No. 2—George Ogden, Foreman; Tommy Williams, Hook and Ladder, No. 1—Frank Levi, Foreman; John Payne, Assistant; Henry Harolsh, A. Fritz, Wm. Doake, Ad McDurdy, Wm. Parks, Geo. Brillhart, Howard Longan, Lewis Lipps, Dan Kaufman, Chas. Polley, Al Beams, W. Messinger, Al Cowpenhall, Abilene Brass Band, 12 pieces.

The Firemen's Tournament. By the early train, Tuesday, numerous visitors from neighboring towns, arrived to witness or participate in the Firemen's Tournament. The doors of the business houses were closed the better part of the day, so that Salina presented quite a holiday appearance.

There was no lack of conveyances and the visitors were carried "hither and yon" at lightning speed, viewing the various attractions of our city. At nine o'clock A. M., the firemen gathered to take part in the parade. Col. E. C. Culp acted as marshal, and Capt. Baker and John J. Geis, as assistant marshals. The Abilene Cornet Band was placed at the head of the procession, followed by the Fire Departments of Abilene and Salina.

At the head of the second division, came the Ellsworth Knights of Pythias Band, followed by our home department—both the Hook and Ladder Co. and the Hose companies. Closing the procession were the carriages containing the various visiting officials as well as our own city council.

The line of march was as follows: City Hall, south to South street, thence west on South to Ninth street, thence east on Ninth to Santa Fe avenue, thence south on Santa Fe avenue to City Hall. The parade was a fine one in all respects and made a very imposing appearance. The many colored uniforms looked handsomely in the bright sunlight and were sufficiently varied as to give "glitter and tinsel" to the show. Completing the line of march at the City Hall, Mayor Ober made an address of welcome, heartily and most cordially extending to the visitors the hospitality of the city of Salina.

The dinner hour, the visitors were distributed at the various hotels and undoubtedly fared well and were treated well. Following dinner, came the exhibition of the power and capacity of our water system. The streets were filled with people. The exhibition was confined to that part of Santa Fe between Iron Avenue and South street. Six streams each 125 feet high, were thrown at once. And then the exhibition of the famous nozzle trucking of Iron Avenue. The nozzle was finally aimed at a post, when a stream of great power ascended to a height of 100 feet. This and the other displays were magnificent, calling forth many terms of admiration from the assembled crowds. The committee of arrangements and the boys of the Fire Department are entitled to much credit for the perfect manner in which the day's entertainments passed.

Not an unpleasant incident occurred to disturb the pleasure of the day. The guests seemed very much pleased with their little holiday in Salina. In the evening, the city of Salina was again decorated by the city council.

The Third Annual Fair of our County Agricultural Society was formally opened last Tuesday. Good crops and comparatively easy times have generally brightened the faces of the residents of Salina county, and they are therefore manifesting more general interest in the exhibit of our products and stock, than they ever did before. Wherefore, the Fair at the start promised to be the best we have ever had. Instead of the dreary, unattractive show as is usual on the first day of a Fair, there was a very large attendance and a splendid exhibit to start with. The races Tuesday afternoon were quite exciting. In the citizen's roadster's race the first premium was won by Collis H. (Hobbs' mare); 2d premium, Hawk-eye (A. L. Davis); 3d premium, 4 by Mand (J. J. Geis' mare) and 5 by Gold Drop (Mr. Olney's horse). In the pony running race, Grasshopper (Willis Collins) won the first premium; 2d, H. Hudson's Nell, 3d, and G. M. Howell's Buster 3d.

Yesterday afternoon a competitive drill for a make-up sum of $25 took place between the Minneapolis and Salina military companies—the Minneapolis boys winning the money. The races occurred as follows: 3-minute class for $100—Collis H. 1st money, Black Prince 2d; 50 class for $200—2 heats fought; Harry P., 1st; Napier, 2d; finished to-day. Running race, 1 mile, best 3 in 5: Fleming 1st, Titania 3d.

We had time yesterday to take a hasty glance at the various exhibits. We shall endeavor to be more explicit next week. Entering the first building we found an exhibition of ten varieties of corn by Hon. A. P. Collins, which highly as a corn show as we ever saw made. Mr. Robert Muir has also three varieties of corn which are very fine. Oats and wheat in the show are also very fine. There is also a choice exhibit of broom corn.

Near the center of the building is a fine exhibit of samples of flour, meal, groats, etc., from Geis & Gibb's Cambria Mills. The house of 30 boxes and a number of paper bags, in which are shown what they are doing and can do. The exhibit of carrots, onions, squashes, and beets is extraordinary. Mr. Gebhardt shows three varieties of potatoes—mammoth and very choice. In the cabbage line, M. S. Price calls our attention to a long row of his productions—all very large and suggestive of a fine crop.

The exhibit of fruit for the first time at our Fair. Pumpkins without number, and as big as the can be almost, are ranged along in a row. Hon. H. L. Jones takes up a large space with his fruit display, which is immense. Mr. Mayne has also a very large display of vegetables of all kinds. Entering the second building one almost cries out with delight at the magnificent display of fruit—by far the largest and best ever made before in this county.

The chief exhibit in this department is by the Salina County Horticultural Society; and one is reminded of this fact by seeing the name of the exhibit, made of "fruit letters" on the wall. They have 100 plates filled with fruit, expecting to increase the number to over 200. They exhibit 15 varieties of pears, 120 plates of apples and 36 of peaches. Grapes, cranberries and other fruit are also exhibited. All this fruit was grown in Salina county. Jesse Frank makes quite a display of Leavenworth county fruit—150 plates at least. Senator Anderson exhibits fine fall and winter apples; Robert Muir, apples, peaches and pears; G. Schlippe, apples; John Kline, pears—very large. Mr. McComber shows 130 varieties of grapes—the same beautiful exhibit which he made at the Biemann Fair. G. M. Eastman has an exhibition of organs and sewing machines; also Henry Bailly. J. T. Wells makes a most attractive exhibit of lace, robes, dresses, middie, whips, etc. Charles Lowe produces his always attractive and interesting exhibit of "bug" show. Another party in the other building also has a "bug" show. J. A. Barker shows home grown nursery stock in a box. R. H. Gardner takes up a corner with his display of photographs, and near by is Geo. F. Sauer's elegant exhibit of ladies' and gents' shoes. Kansas silk from Dickinson county, reeled and otherwise, attracts much attention. The ladies have furnished more than the usual amount of fancy work. We would like to mention the names of all the ladies, but it was impossible for us to obtain them. The display made by Mrs. Briggs and Mrs. Gebhardt is especially fine. Fugate & Snow have an elegant exhibit of millinery and fancy articles. Mr. Buehl makes a good floral exhibit; Melbert & Dickinson show their fine organs, as also does Mr. Solberg. Joseph Henry has a good exhibit of Salina county grapes; 75 species, in forms. For home made rugs, the handwork of Mrs. Alex Scholtz, are very much admired. Mrs. Peck has a fine exhibit of oil paintings. Miss Ruggles a crayon exhibit. The pyramid of bread and butter and jellies shows that people do bake and churn and eat in this country. Mr. Freeman Kingman makes an exhibit of his agricultural implements and wagons. We were unable to "take in" the horses and cattle and dogs, but expect to devote special attention to them next week. The entire display was so large that new ones had to be built. The principal exhibitors are Messrs. Bartlett & Jenkins and Carlin and Hackett. The display of cattle, sheep and hogs is pronounced big! Frost & Jones have a well patronized dining hall, and their patrons are all well pleased. The usual number of booths, games, etc., are found upon the grounds. There is even a music hall, where the "musicians" will play the "live-long" night. With this important sketch of what we saw and heard yesterday morning, we leave the Fair until next week.

A foolish report was in circulation yesterday that A. T. & M. H. Oiler were about to commence suit against the city for damages to their stock caused by water at the display on Tuesday. The boys in the case are that the Oiler made an apology for letting the water into the stock pens. It was an unavoidable accident and the ladies were perfectly satisfied with the apology.

Mr. D. G. Deussen announced that he is a candidate for County Clerk. He is a prominent business man of Rockville. He is well-known in the county and is qualified for the position.

The STRONG LUMBER COMPANY will commence business on or about October 1st, with a new and complete stock of lumber, shingles, lath, sash, doors, blinds, &c., &c. Office and yard on Iron Avenue, west of the Metropolitan Hotel. In connection with our red and white cedar posts we will also offer for sale 20 tons four-barbed fence wire at $6.75 per 100 pounds.

Fair Items.

The Ellsworth Band arrived by Monday morning's train. Friday will be a fair day big with events.

The receipts on Tuesday at the Fair were about $600—pretty good for the first Fair day.

The railroad is running special trains on the McPherson branch—quite an accommodation to those who are attending our Fair.

Mr. C. S. Martin, the efficient Secretary of the Fair Association, is deservedly receiving many compliments from all sources for the good work he has done for the Fair.

The editor is very much obliged for the delightful music rendered by the Ellsworth band at his residence last evening.

Salina's First Camp Fire.

The camp fire of the veterans last evening was even more successful and enjoyable than was anticipated. There were some seven tents pitched, besides a large pavilion tent named for the occasion "Headquarters." The camp was named Camp Gilbert G. Lowe, in honor of a brave soldier who now sleeps in Gypsum Hill Cemetery.

About 6 o'clock the veterans commenced to gather, and before the evening had passed fully three hundred veterans were upon the ground. L. M. Tuttle was Commander of the Post; E. C. Culp, Officer of the Day; Chas. Bush, Officer of the Guard; J. G. Mohler, Judge Advocate; D. J. Addison, Q. M. & C. S. P. A. Smith, Adjutant General. The usual number of A. D. C.'s and other officers were present, and still there was a goodly number of private left. Bridge Post was well represented and marched to camp in good order. A large number of spectators were present, all of whom seemed to enjoy camp life very much. The camp was well lighted by lamps and the usual camp fire; hence quite a brilliant scene was presented. The Salina Rifles were present and kindly assisted the boys with their arms and equipments. When supper was announced a general rush was made for tin cups, tin plates and supplies, and bean soup, coffee, bacon and crackers—all the best that could be made in camp fashion—were served in abundance. Friend Gardner was made the chief cook and George Black, assistant; and to them many were the thanks and compliments bestowed upon their successful work. Even the ladies enjoyed the army fare with keen relish. The boys enjoyed the supper hugely and ate it in story-telling groups, here, there, and everywhere under the great trees. Following supper came dress parade, in which the boys managed to form a line equally as straight as a Virginia fence. Several high-toned orders were read, one among them being the arraignment of Private Solomon H. Williams, charging him with acts unbecoming a soldier, and appointing the members of a court martial for trying him. After the parade, guard mounting took place, and sentries were posted and the country was safe. The "second relief" was never called upon. The boys of the "first relief" either departed, fell asleep upon their posts or were captured. Ten minutes after the sentries went out, there was not a man on his post. Then came the court martial with H. D. Baker as President, Mohler, Judge Advocate, Manchester and Walt as members. Private Williams was brought before the court. Elder Bee was assigned as his counsel. The substance of the charge was that there was gross irregularity in the military methods of Private Williams' kitchen stealing. One witness was in the midst of his testimony when a sneezing party came flying in and the prisoner disappeared. At this juncture the prisoner's counsel bitterly opposed a continuance of the court-martial. He claimed that his client who had recently was so near and yet now was so far, was ready for trial and isolated. That the court-martial should proceed. The arguments both of the Judge Advocate and Counsel for the defense were learned, weighty and impressive. A continuance was taken. But little time elapsed before the prisoner was recaptured and brought before the court. The judgment of the court finally was that Private Williams be drummed out of camp. The sentence was not approved by the commanding officer; hence the matter rests for the present. During the evening fine and stirring martial music was rendered by a band made up from the Salina and Bridge Posts. Some patriotic songs were also effectively sung by Messrs. Aldrich, Bond, Nickles and Shute. In the course of the evening Messrs. Bee and Mohler made stirring speeches, which the boys enjoyed very much. Soon after the crowd commenced dispersing, and about fifty of the veterans prepared their blankets for rest. But there was no rest. Hardly had a comrade commenced to doze, when a squad with a torch would come along on mischief drawn, and the sleepy soldier was drawn from his tent by the torch fire. It soon became dangerous to be seen in a tent, and the boys would betake themselves to remote parts of the park for an hour of undisturbed rest. But the tramp of that squad would be heard on the evening breeze and the unfortunate would be routed out. No foot of ground escaped the searching squad that night; hence the boys had to gather about the pavilion or around the camp fire, and tell all he remembered, after a sleepless night at Camp Gilbert G. Lowe. We hope the Salina county veterans may have the privilege of participating in many more pleasant camp fires and reunions.

The following is the programme of the Salina Literary society, for Friday Sept. 28: Music. Recitation, H. C. Rash. Paper, Mrs. T. F. Gayer. Dialogue, Mary Suydam and N. H. Loomis.
